Multiple times during the event as it is part of the entrance. During registration, during breaks, and at the Goddess Party on the first day. Also during Bubbles and Beats, specifically created for the guests to shop and enjoy all your amazing products and services!

Can I attend the conference?

Yes, your vendor booth includes one complimentary ticket to the As She Rises Live Event. There will be a row of seats specifically for vendors. Additional tickets can be purchased at a discounted price for those working your booth.
